Income assistance office still located at the Brown Building

Start Date: December 15, 2014 End Date: December 31, 2014

Iqaluit, NU 30 sec

The Department of Family Services recently moved its headquarters' operations to building 224 on Sinaa Street, the old courthouse in Iqaluit. This move does not include the income assistance office.

All income assistance clients can continue to go to the income assistance office, which is still located on the first floor of the Brown Building in Iqaluit.

For more information, please contact the income assistance office at 867-975-5680.
