Do you have knowledge and experience in dealing with social issues, restorative justice and Inuit societal values? Interested in helping victims and offenders? The Hall Beach Justice Committee is looking for members.

Justice committees in Nunavut use a community-based justice approach to assist victims of crime and work with people who have caused harm by committing an offence.

Training on members' roles and responsibilities will be provided. Committee members are volunteers, and receive honoraria for attending meetings.

If you are interested, please submit your resumé and criminal record check to L-J Gibbons, Hall Beach Community Justice Outreach worker, at hbcjow@gmail.com. For more information, please contact L-J by email or at (867) 928-8120.

Deadline for submission is May 31, 2018.
