Nunavut secondary students eligible to work general election

Start Date: September 11, 2017

End Date: September 22, 2017

Nunavut-wide

Calling all Nunavummiut students enrolled in secondary school! Are you interested in learning more about elections and how they are run, while gaining valuable work experience?

The Department of Education and Elections Nunavut invite you to apply for paid positions as registration and polling clerks during the 2017 General Elections.

Applicants must be 15 years of age or older, enrolled and in good standing with a Nunavut secondary school, have the permission of the principal and a parent/guardian, and be able to work legally in Canada.

Applications will be made available at Nunavut schools and through district education authorities. The deadline to apply is September 22, 2017.
