Start Date: May 29, 2019

End Date: June 14, 2019

Nunavut-wide

60 sec

Did you know that whether you live in an unrestricted or restricted community, you can bring back up to three litres of spirits, nine litres of wine, or 26 litres of beer (72 x 355 millilitre containers) to Nunavut? A liquor import permit is needed to bring in more than this amount. If you live in a restricted community, you will also need approval from your local Alcohol Education Committee (AEC) before importing alcohol.

Import permits are available from your region's liquor permit office:

Iqaluit Beer and Wine Store  Phone: 867-975-6869 Fax: 867-979-5836	Cambridge Bay – Department of Finance (Helen Maksagak Centre) Phone: 867-983-4048
Rankin Inlet – Siniktarvik Building  Phone: 867-645-8576 Fax: 867-645-3327	Hamlet of Kugluktuk  Phone: 867-982-6509 Email: water@kugluktuk.ca

Without an import permit, liquor stores in other provinces will not process your order. Import permits should be purchased in person, but if you need to order your permit by fax or email, you will need to include a valid photo ID. Accepted payment methods to purchase a permit are cash, cheque, credit card and debit card.

You can buy alcohol within Nunavut without an import permit through the Nunavut Liquor and Cannabis Commission, by phone at 867-645-8475 or toll free at 855-844-5488, by fax at 867-645-3327, or by email at NLCLiquororders@gov.nu.ca.
