Note to Readers:

To improve the timeliness of the data, the collection period was shortened in 2017 compared with previous years. As a result, 2017 data are considered preliminary. The data will be revised in future releases.

Data on the causes and number of deaths for deaths that occurred in Yukon or to residents of Yukon in other provinces or territories are not available. Likewise, data on the causes of death occurring in Ontario or to residents of Ontario in other provinces or territories are also not available. However, the total number of deaths in Ontario was available and has been included in this release.
