

LIQUOR ACT

CONSOLIDATION OF LIQUOR STORE REGULATIONS

R.R.N.W.T. 1990, c. L-36

AS AMENDED BY

This consolidation is not an official statement of the law. It is an office consolidation prepared for convenience of reference only. The authoritative text of regulations can be ascertained from the Revised Regulations of the Northwest Territories, 1990 and the monthly publication of Part II of the Northwest Territories Gazette (for regulations made before April 1, 1999) and Part II of the Nunavut Gazette (for regulations made on or after April 1, 1999).

Liquor Act (Nunavut)

Liquor Store Regulations

1 In these regulations,

“designated liquor store” means a liquor store designated as a liquor store for the purposes of these regulations, by order of the Commissioner;

“liquor store operator” includes any person employed in a designated liquor store;

“prescribed period” means a period prescribed under section 2;

“purchase book” means a purchase book or card issued by a designated liquor store;

“unit” means a unit of liquor prescribed under section 2.

2(1) The Commissioner, in his or her absolute discretion, may, by order, designate a liquor store, in any community as a designated liquor store for the purposes of these regulations.

(2) When the Commissioner, by order, designates a liquor store under this section he or she shall, in the same order, prescribe the amounts of beer, wine or liquor that comprise a unit for the purposes of these regulations as applied to the designated liquor store.

(3) When the Commissioner, by order, designates a liquor store under this section, he or she may, in his or her absolute discretion, in the same order, establish provisions for consolidated purchases of liquor.

(4) When the Commissioner, by order, designates a liquor store under this section he or she shall indicate whether the unit allowed under section 4 is to be for a one day period or for a one week period.

3(1) Subject to these regulations, no person shall purchase or attempt to purchase liquor at a designated liquor store unless using a purchase book to do so.

(2) Subject to these regulations, no designated liquor store operator shall sell or attempt to sell liquor unless it is to a person using a purchase book.

4(1) Subject to these regulations, no person shall purchase or attempt to purchase, at a designated liquor store, any quantity of liquor, in the prescribed period, that is in excess of one unit.

(2) Subject to these regulations, no designated liquor store operator shall sell or attempt to sell any quantity of liquor, in the prescribed period, that is in excess of one unit.

5(1) Purchase books shall be made available at any designated liquor store.

(2) Purchase books under these regulations shall remain in the designated liquor store to assist designated liquor store employees in administering these regulations.

6 A person may purchase his or her unit or units by mail, subject to the designated liquor store operator being satisfied that it is a bona fide purchase.

7 Nothing in these regulations prohibits the holder or a licence, issued under the Liquor Act or regulations made under the Act, from purchasing the liquor necessary for the proper exercise of privileges granted by the licence.
