S.Nu. 2013,c.27,s.42.

Inherent power of Legislative Assembly

2. (1) Nothing in this Act affects the inherent power of the Legislative Assembly to control its own proceedings, privileges or prerogatives, unless expressly provided otherwise.

Rights of the Legislative Assembly not limited

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to limit the right of the Legislative Assembly to expel, suspend or discipline a member according to the practices, rules and procedures of the Legislative Assembly or the practices of Parliament.

Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit

(3) In exercising its right referred to in subsection (1), the Legislative Assembly may take into consideration Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit. S.Nu. 2006,c.10,s.4(2).

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Composition of Legislative Assembly

3. The Legislative Assembly consists of 22 members, each elected to represent one constituency in accordance with the Nunavut Elections Act. S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(2)(a),(b); S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.11; S.Nu. 2011,c.24,s.1(2).

Proclamation

4. Instructions of the Commissioner given under subsection 15(1) of the Nunavut Act (Canada) for issuing writs for the election of members must be in the form of a proclamation. S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(1); S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.11.

5. Repealed, S.Nu. 2014,c.5,s.1.

Session

6. (1) A session begins on the first day of the first sitting following prorogation of the Legislative Assembly and ends on the day on which the session is next prorogued.

First session

(2) The Commissioner shall convene the first session of a Legislative Assembly as soon as practicable after the date of the return of the writs, but in any event no later than 45 days after the date of the general election, unless exceptional circumstances exist that make a delay necessary.

Sittings

(3) Pursuant to section 18 of the Nunavut Act (Canada), the Legislative Assembly shall sit at least once every 12 months.

Date of next session

(4) At the prorogation of a session, the Commissioner shall announce the date for the commencement of the next session. S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(2).

Definition of "place of the seat of government of Nunavut"

7. (1) In this section, "place of the seat of government of Nunavut" means the place designated by the Governor in Council under section 4 of the Nunavut Act (Canada).

Iqaluit designated

(2) Pursuant to subsection (1), the place designated as the place of the seat of government of Nunavut is Iqaluit.

Place of sittings

(3) Sessions and sittings of the Legislative Assembly shall be held at Iqaluit unless the Legislative Assembly in caucus decides to hold a session or sitting at any other place in Nunavut.

Precinct of the Legislative Assembly

8. (1) In Iqaluit, the precinct of the Legislative Assembly is under the jurisdiction of the Speaker, and includes

- (a) the Legislative Assembly Building and any other office, warehouse or storage space ordinarily and commonly used by the members and the officers and employees of the Office of the Legislative Assembly for the business of the Legislative Assembly; and
- (b) any space temporarily used by the members and the officers and employees of the Office of the Legislative Assembly for the business of the Legislative Assembly.

Precinct when Legislative Assembly sits outside Iqaluit

(2) When the Legislative Assembly is sitting in another community or place in Nunavut, the precinct of the Legislative Assembly is under the jurisdiction of the Speaker, and includes all the spaces temporarily used by the members and the officers and employees of the Office of the Legislative Assembly for the business of the Legislative Assembly during the sitting.

Quorum

9. (1) A majority of members, including the Speaker, constitutes a quorum of the Legislative Assembly.

Voting

(2) Questions arising in the Legislative Assembly shall be decided by a majority of votes cast.

Where member ineligible at time of election

10. (1) A person who is elected as a member but who, at the time of his or her election, was not eligible to be a candidate at the election shall not be or sit as a member.

Where member ineligible after election

(2) A member who, after his or her election, would not be eligible to be a candidate at an election shall not be or sit as a member.

Persons not eligible to sit

(3) In addition to the criteria of eligibility for candidates set out in the Nunavut Elections Act, persons in the following categories are not eligible to sit as members:

- (a) members of boards or other organizations to which they were appointed under an Act, an Act of a province or another territory, or an Act of Canada;
- (b) holders of any office to which they were elected or appointed pursuant to the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement;
- (c) mayors or councillors of a municipal corporation;
- (d) officers of the Office of the Legislative Assembly, with the exception of members of the Management and Services Board; and
- (e) members of boards and officers of corporations and agencies of the Government of Nunavut.
S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(4).

Where member convicted on indictment under Criminal Code

11. (1) Where a member is convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code prosecuted by indictment, the member shall not be or sit as a member.

Where member convicted of other offences

(2) Where a member is convicted of an offence under an Act or an Act of Canada, other than an offence described in subsection (1), the Legislative Assembly may determine whether or not it is necessary, for the good of the public and in the interest of the Legislative Assembly, to expel the member from the Legislative Assembly and to declare that the member's seat is vacant or to otherwise discipline the member.

Oaths

12. Every member shall, before assuming any duties of office, take an oath of allegiance in Form 1 and an oath of office in Form 2 of Schedule D in the presence of the Commissioner.
S.Nu. 2008,c.8,s.1(2); S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.11.

VACANCIES

Resignation of seat

- 13. (1) A member may resign his or her seat as a member
- (a) by declaring openly, in the member's place in the Legislative Assembly, the member's decision to resign, in which case the Clerk shall note the decision in the records and journals of the Legislative Assembly and the seat of the member shall immediately become vacant; or
 - (b) by causing to be delivered to the Speaker
 - (i) a written statement declaring the member's decision to resign signed by the member and dated not more than 14 days before the Speaker receives the statement, and
 - (ii) an affidavit of a witness attesting to the execution of the statement sworn before a commissioner for oaths or another person authorized to take affidavits in Nunavut,and on delivery of the statement and supporting affidavit to the Speaker the seat of the member shall become vacant.

Informing Commissioner of vacancy

(2) Where the Speaker receives a statement and supporting affidavit under paragraph (1)(b), the Speaker shall inform the Commissioner of the vacancy and transmit the statement and the affidavit to the Commissioner.

Member deemed to have resigned

(3) A member who has been convicted of an offence under the Criminal Code prosecuted by indictment shall be deemed to have resigned his or her seat.

Time for resignation

(4) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed not to be a member unless that person has been declared elected as a member.

Effect of resignation

(5) The resignation of a member under this section does not affect the conduct or result of any proceedings that are pending or that may be taken

- (a) under any law respecting controverted elections;
- (b) under the Integrity Act; or
- (c) by the Legislative Assembly in its judicial capacity.

Proclamation

14. Where the seat of a member becomes vacant for any reason, the Commissioner, on being informed of the vacancy, shall issue a proclamation in accordance with the Nunavut Elections Act. S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(3).

Effect of vacancy

15. No omission or failure to elect a member or members for any constituency, and no vacating of the seat or avoiding of the election of any member or members, shall make the Legislative Assembly incomplete, invalidate any of its proceedings or prevent the Legislative Assembly from meeting and dispatching business, so long as there is a quorum of members present. S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(2)(c).

RIGHTS AND POWERS OF LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY AND MEMBERS

Parliamentary privilege

16. (1) The Legislative Assembly and the members hold, enjoy and exercise those and similar privileges, immunities and powers that are now held, enjoyed and exercised by the House of Commons of the Parliament of Canada and by the members of that House of Commons.

Part of the law of Nunavut

- (2) The privileges, immunities and powers referred to in subsection (1)
- (a) are part of the public and general law in Nunavut;
 - (b) need not be pleaded;
 - (c) shall be judicially noticed in all courts in Nunavut; and
 - (d) shall be exercised taking into consideration Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit.

Existing rights not affected

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to deprive the Legislative Assembly, the members, the Management and Services Board, the committees of the Legislative Assembly or of the Management and Services Board, or a person involved in the proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, of the Management and Services Board or their committees, of any rights, immunities, privileges or powers that the Legislative Assembly, the members, the Management and Services Board, the committees of the Legislative Assembly or of the Management and Services Board, or the person is otherwise entitled to. S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.11.

Establishment of committees

17. (1) The Legislative Assembly may establish such committees to aid and advise it as it considers necessary.

Extension of powers and rights

(2) All of the powers and rights of the Legislative Assembly are extended to its committees and to the Management and Services Board and its committees.

Powers of the Legislative Assembly

- 18. (1) The Legislative Assembly has the following powers:
- (a) to regulate its own proceedings and internal affairs;
 - (b) to ensure the attendance and service of its members;
 - (c) to discipline members, including but not limited to suspending or expelling members;
 - (d) to publish material that would otherwise be considered defamatory;

- (e) to administer oaths to witnesses;
- (f) to compel the attendance and evidence of witnesses and production of documents, with the exception of any evidence or documents that a court could not compel; and
- (g) to inquire into and to punish breaches of parliamentary privilege.

Protection for witnesses

(2) Evidence compelled or documents required to be produced under subsection (1) may not be used against the person who gave the evidence or produced the documents except in a prosecution for perjury.

RIGHTS AND POWERS OF MEMBERS

Rights and powers of members

19. (1) In addition to the rights and powers of members under subsection 16(3), members have the following rights and powers:

- (a) freedom of speech;
- (b) subject to this Act or the Integrity Act, freedom from arrest in a civil action during a sitting of the Legislative Assembly and for five days before the commencement of a sitting and for five days following the end of a sitting;
- (c) exemption from jury duty;
- (d) exemption from appearing as a witness before a court or any person or body empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses, at the following times:
 - (i) during a sitting of the Legislative Assembly and for five days before the commencement of a sitting and five days following the end of a sitting,
 - (ii) during a meeting of a committee on which they serve or before which they are required to appear, and for two days before the commencement of the meeting and for two days following the end of the meeting, and
 - (iii) at such other times as the Speaker considers necessary for the functioning of the Legislative Assembly; and
- (e) freedom from obstruction, interference, intimidation and molestation in the carrying out of their duties.

Consent of Speaker required

(2) A member may not be arrested or detained in a criminal matter while the member is in the Legislative Assembly Building or the precinct without the consent of the Speaker or Deputy Speaker.

Protection of members from actions

(3) Subject to the Integrity Act, no member is liable to any civil action or prosecution, arrest, imprisonment or damages

- (a) by reason of any matter or thing brought by the member by petition, bill, resolution, motion or otherwise; or
- (b) by reason of anything said by the member,

before the Legislative Assembly, the Management and Services Board, or any committee of the Legislative Assembly or the Management and Services Board.

Liability for acts done under authority of Legislative Assembly

20. (1) No person who is

- (a) under lawful instructions from the Legislative Assembly, or
- (b) a witness before the Legislative Assembly, the Management and Services Board, or any committee of the Legislative Assembly or the Management and Services Board, is liable for any act done by him or her, under those instructions or as a witness, to any other person in damages or otherwise.

Liability for publication of defamatory material

(2) A person is not liable for the publication of material that would otherwise be considered defamatory if the publication is by the order of the Legislative Assembly.

Exemptions for officers and employees

21. (1) The Clerk, the Law Clerk, the Sergeant-at-Arms and the employees of the Office of the Legislative Assembly, and persons appearing before the Legislative Assembly, the Management and Services Board, or one of their respective committees, are exempt from appearing as witnesses before a court or any person or body empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses, and from jury duty, at the following times:

- (a) during a sitting of the Legislative Assembly and for five days before the commencement of a sitting and five days following the end of a sitting;
- (b) during a meeting of a committee and for two days before the commencement of the meeting and for two days following the end of the meeting;
- (c) at such other times as the Speaker deems necessary for the functioning of the Legislative Assembly.

Exemptions for others

(2) Where the Speaker certifies in writing that a person performs a service essential to the proper functioning of the Office of the Legislative Assembly, that person is exempt from appearing as a witness before a court or any person or body empowered to compel the attendance of witnesses, and from jury duty, at the times described in paragraphs (1)(a) to (c). S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.2.

BREACHES OF PRIVILEGE

Judicial powers of Legislative Assembly

22. The Legislative Assembly is a court of record and has all the rights, powers and privileges of a court for the purpose of inquiring into, adjudicating and punishing any breaches of parliamentary privilege, including the power to order imprisonment as punishment for such breaches.

Legislative Assembly determines breaches of privilege

23. (1) Any act which, in the determination of the Legislative Assembly, is an attempt or has the effect of interfering with the duties of the Legislative Assembly, the members, the Management and Services Board, or the committees of the Legislative Assembly and the Management and Services Board, constitutes a breach of parliamentary privilege.

Acts which constitute breach of privilege

(2) Without restricting subsection (1), the following constitute breaches of parliamentary privilege:

- (a) an assault or libel on a member;
- (b) obstructing, threatening or attempting to force or intimidate a member in any matter relating to his or her office;
- (c) the offering to, or accepting by, a member of a bribe, fee or reward to improperly influence him or her in the conduct of the office of member;
- (d) tampering with a witness regarding the evidence given or to be given by the witness before the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly;
- (e) giving false evidence, misbehaving in giving evidence, refusing to attend, or refusing to give evidence or to produce documents before the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly;
- (f) forging or falsifying
 - (i) a record of the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly, or
 - (ii) a document presented to or filed with, or to be presented to or filed with, the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly;
- (g) knowingly presenting to the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly a forged or falsified document; and
- (h) contravening this Act or an order of the Legislative Assembly or a committee of the Legislative Assembly.

Determinations and orders final

24. (1) The determinations and orders of the Legislative Assembly under sections 22 and 23 are final.

Additional liability

(2) A determination or order of the Legislative Assembly under section 22 or 23 does not affect the liability of the offender to prosecution and punishment according to law and independently of this Act.

INDEMNITIES, ALLOWANCES AND EXPENSES

Member's indemnity

- 25. (1) Every member shall be paid
- (a) an indemnity at the rate set out in section 1 of Schedule C; and
 - (b) a constituency work indemnity at the rate set out in section 1.1 of Schedule C.

Day on which indemnity commences

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person shall be deemed to have become a member on the last day fixed for the election of a member for the constituency represented by that person.

Continuation of service as member

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person who immediately before the expiration or dissolution of the Legislative Assembly was a member shall be deemed to continue to be a member until the day preceding the polling day for the next general election.

Payment of indemnities

(4) The indemnities referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid every two weeks in equal amounts.

(5) Repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.3(2).

Death of member

(6) Where a member dies, the indemnities payable under subsection (1) shall be paid to the end of the month in which the death of the member occurs.

S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(2)(d); S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.3; S.Nu. 2019,c.22,s.2.

Additional indemnity

26. (1) A member who serves in a capacity listed in section 2 of Schedule C shall be paid, during the period the member serves in that capacity, an indemnity at the rate set out in that section, in addition to the indemnities under section 25.

Indemnity – person appointed under paragraph 60(1)(b)

(2) A person, other than a member, who is appointed under paragraph 60(1)(b) and serves in a capacity listed in section 2 of Schedule C shall be paid, during the period the person serves in that capacity,

- (a) an indemnity equivalent to the indemnity under paragraph 25(1)(a); and
- (b) an indemnity at the rate set out in section 2 of Schedule C.
S.Nu. 2019,c.22,s.3.

Committee meeting indemnity

27. (1) An indemnity at the rate set out in section 3 of Schedule C shall be paid to every member who

- (a) repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.2,s.2(1);
- (b) repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.2,s.2(1);
- (c) repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.2,s.2(1);
- (d) performs an assignment or duty given to him or her by the Legislative Assembly or the Speaker; or
- (e) repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.2,s.2(1).

Indemnity payable for each day

Maximum indemnity for travel

(3) The maximum amount of travel time for which an indemnity under subsection (1) shall be paid is four days.

Indemnity prorated

(4) The indemnity payable under subsection (1) shall be prorated accordingly where, for part only of a day,

- (a) a member attends a meeting or performs an assignment or duty referred to in subsection (1); or
- (b) a member is absent from his or her place of residence to attend a meeting or perform an assignment or duty referred to in subsection (1).

Indemnity during session

(5) Members shall not be paid an indemnity under subsection (1) during a session, unless the attendance at the meeting or performance of the assignment or duty occurs on a Saturday, a Sunday, a general holiday as defined in the Labour Standards Act, including Easter Monday and Boxing Day, or on any day on which the session stands adjourned.

Speaker and Minister

(6) The Speaker and a Minister shall not be paid an indemnity under subsection (1). S.Nu. 2010,c.2,s.2.

Living allowance for member not within commuting distance

28. (1) If a member does not live within commuting distance of a place referred to in subsection (2) and must travel to that place, the member shall be paid

- (a) the reasonable costs of the return transportation of the member between the member's place of residence and the place to which the member must travel; and
- (b) a living allowance at the prescribed rate for each day that the member attends the session, sitting or meeting or performs the assignment or duties referred to in subsection (2), or is absent from the member's place of residence in order to attend or perform.

Places

- (2) Subsection (1) applies with respect to a place where
- (a) a session or sitting is being held;
 - (b) a meeting of a committee of the Legislative Assembly of which the member is a member is being held;
 - (c) a meeting of the Management and Services Board of which the member is a member is being held;
 - (d) a meeting of caucus is being held;
 - (e) a meeting of regular members' caucus is being held; or
 - (f) the member is performing an assignment or duty given to the member by the Legislative Assembly or the Speaker.

Written claim

(3) A member may claim a living allowance under subsection (1) by filing a written statement with the Office of the Clerk listing the dates and locations of the session, sitting or meeting or the performance of the assignment or duty.

(4) Repealed, S.Nu. 2019, c.22, s.4.
S.Nu. 2019, c.22, s.4.

Resident of Nunavut allowance

29. Every member shall be paid an allowance for residents of Nunavut, calculated in accordance with the place where the member ordinarily resides, at the rate set out in section 4 of Schedule C. S.Nu. 2010, c.2, s.3.

Additional travel entitlement

30. (1) In addition to the travel expenses allowed under paragraph 28(1)(a), a member who attends a sitting of the Legislative Assembly or a meeting of a committee of the Legislative Assembly of which the member is a member is entitled to travel expenses in accordance with the directives issued by the Management and Service Board for

- (a) the member; and
- (b) other designated travellers, as defined in the directives.

Cost of travel

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the cost of a trip is the cost that in the opinion of the Management and Services Board is the most reasonable cost for the trip, and, in the event of disagreement, the decision as to the reasonableness of an expense shall be made by the Management and Services Board.

Family-friendly entitlements

(3) A member is entitled to allowances and expenses in accordance with the directives issued by the Management and Services Board respecting a family-friendly Legislative Assembly.

(4) Repealed, S.Nu. 2019, c.22, s.5.
S.Nu. 2010, c.13, s.11; S.Nu. 2019, c.22, s.5.

Constituency allowance and expenses

31. (1) In addition to the allowances and expenses referred to in section 27 to 30, when a member engages in constituency work that is not within commuting distance of the member's place of residence, the member is entitled to be paid

- (a) the reasonable cost of the return transportation of the member between the member's place of residence and the place to which the member must travel; and
- (b) a living allowance at the prescribed rate for each day that the member is engaged in constituency work or is absent from the member's place of residence in order to engage in constituency work.

Written claim

(2) A member may claim a living allowance under subsection (1)(a) by filing a written statement with the Office of the Clerk listing the dates and locations of the constituency work.

Other expenses that may be paid

(3) In addition to the allowances and expenses referred to in subsection (1), a member is entitled to be reimbursed for any other reasonable expenses incurred by the member in order to engage in the constituency work on production of receipts or other documentation satisfactory to the Management and Services Board.

Amount of expenses

(4) The maximum allowances and expenses to which a member is entitled under this section in any fiscal year shall not exceed the amount set out in Schedule B for the constituency represented by the member.

(5) Repealed, S.Nu. 2019,c.22,s.6.

S.Nu. 2002,c.17,s.275(2)(e); S.Nu. 2019,c.22,s.6.

Prorated expenses and indemnities

32. In a year in which there is a general election, the entitlement of a member, Speaker and Deputy Speaker to expenses, indemnities and allowances under section 31 shall be reduced

- (a) for the period before the election, to an amount prorated for the period beginning on the first day of the fiscal year and ending on the day on which the writ of election is issued; and
- (b) for the period after the election, to an amount prorated for the period beginning on the day on which the writ of election is returned and ending on the last day of the fiscal year.

Transitional allowance

33. (1) A person who is a member of the Legislative Assembly shall be paid a transitional allowance if he or she

- (a) is not elected as a member of the subsequent Legislative Assembly; or
- (b) does not continue as a member in the current Legislative Assembly.

Calculation

(2) The transitional allowance referred to in subsection (1) shall be calculated as an amount equal to the amount of the indemnity payable to the member for six weeks for each year served at the rate set out in section 1 of Schedule C plus the applicable allowances for six weeks for each year served at the rate for the capacity in which the member served set out in section 2 of Schedule C.

Maximum allowance

(3) The maximum transitional allowance calculated under subsection (2) shall not exceed the amount set out in section 5 of Schedule C.

Allowance prorated

(4) Where a member serves in the Legislative Assembly for less than a year, the transitional allowance shall be prorated accordingly.

Calculation for serving members

(5) Where a member is serving on the coming into force of this Act, and was serving on April 1, 1999, the transitional allowance for that member shall be calculated under subsection (2) as from April 1, 1999.

Additional allowances, expenses, benefits

33.1 (1) The Management and Services Board may establish policies for the payment and recovery of allowances, reimbursement of expenses and provision of benefits to members who are not members of the Executive Council that are in addition to those provided for in sections 25 to 33.

Same

(2) The Executive Council may establish policies for the payment and recovery of allowances, reimbursement of expenses and provision of benefits to members of the Executive Council that are in addition to those provided for in sections 25 to 33. S.Nu. 2015,c.6,s.2.

Reimbursement by member

34. (1) A member shall reimburse the Consolidated Revenue Fund for any excess payment or any payment to which the member was not entitled under this Act by reason of the member's failure to

- (a) attend a sitting of the Legislative Assembly or a meeting of caucus, regular members' caucus or a committee of the Legislative Assembly;
- (b) in the case of a member of the Executive Council, attend a meeting of the Executive Council or a committee of the Executive Council; or
- (c) perform an assignment or duty.

Payment authorized by Management and Services Board

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Management and Services Board may, if the Management and Services Board is of the opinion that the member's explanation for the failure to do any of the acts described in paragraphs 1(a) to (c) is reasonable, authorize the payment of an indemnity, allowance or expense to the member.

Recovery of payment

(3) The Management and Services Board may recover the amount of the payment referred to in subsection (1) by setting it off against any other entitlement the member may have to an indemnity, allowance or expense or by any other legal means. S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.4.

Increase or decrease in rates

35. (1) Where the rates of pay of employees referred to in paragraph 55(5)(a) of the Public Service Act are globally increased or decreased by a certain percentage, the Management and Services Board may, by regulation, amend Schedule C by the same percentage increase or decrease.

Retroactivity of regulations

(2) A regulation made under subsection (1) may come into force before it is made. S.Nu. 2013,c.26,s.87.

Annual report by Speaker

36. (1) The Speaker shall, during each fiscal year, cause a report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly

- (a) setting out any policies made under subsection 33.1(1) in the previous fiscal year; and
- (b) showing the amounts paid by the Legislative Assembly by way of indemnity, allowance, expense or benefit during the previous fiscal year to each person who had been a member during that previous fiscal year, other than those amounts paid pursuant to a policy made under subsection 33.1(2).

Annual report by Premier

(2) The Premier shall, during each fiscal year, cause a report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly

- (a) setting out any policies made under subsection 33.1(2) in the previous fiscal year; and
- (b) showing the amounts paid pursuant to a policy made under subsection 33.1(2), by way of allowance, expense or benefit, during the previous fiscal year to each person who had been a member of the Executive Council during that fiscal year.

Combined report

(3) For further clarity, the information required to be reported under this section may be combined into one report. S.Nu. 2015,c.6,s.3.

Attendance report

36.1. (1) The Speaker may, whenever the Speaker considers appropriate, cause a report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly showing

- (a) the name of any member who failed to attend a sitting of the Legislative Assembly or a meeting described in paragraph 34(1)(a) or (b); and

- (b) if the member provides an explanation for his or her failure to attend that sitting or meeting,
 - (i) a summary of the explanation, and
 - (ii) the determination made by the Management and Services Board as to whether the member's explanation is or is not reasonable.

Information in annual report

(2) The information referred to in subsection (1) shall be included in the annual report laid by Speaker before the Legislative Assembly under section 36. S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.5.

Appointment of commission

37. (1) After every second general election, the Speaker shall, after consultation with the Management and Services Board, establish an independent commission to review and make recommendations to the Speaker regarding the indemnities, allowances, expenses and benefits to be paid to the members of the Legislative Assembly and other related matters.

Reports of commission

(2) The Speaker shall cause any recommendations and reports made by a commission established under subsection (1) to be laid before the Legislative Assembly as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case before the end of the session in which they were received.

Membership of commission

(3) The commission shall be composed of not more than five members, chosen by the Speaker on the recommendation of the Management and Services Board.

Members not eligible

(4) Members shall not serve as members of the commission. S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.11; S.Nu. 2019,c.22,s.7.

58. Payments made under this Act shall be made out of money appropriated for the purpose in the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

COMMISSIONER'S ASSENT TO BILLS

Form and manner of assent

58.1. Assent to a bill passed by the Legislative Assembly of Nunavut may be signified, during the session in which the Legislative Assembly passes the bill,

- (a) in the Legislative Assembly; or
 - (b) by written declaration.
- S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(4); S.Nu. 2006,c.10,s.4(3).

Witness of assent

58.2. (1) The signification of assent by written declaration shall be witnessed by one or more persons designated by the Clerk.

Saving

(2) No assent is invalid only because subsection (1) is not complied with.
S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(4).

Notification in the Legislative Assembly

58.3. The Legislative Assembly shall be notified of a written declaration of assent by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly or by the person acting as Speaker.
S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(4).

Date of assent

58.4. Where assent is signified by written declaration, the Act is deemed to be assented to on the day on which the Legislative Assembly has been notified of the declaration.
S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(4).

Declaration not a statutory instrument

58.5. A written declaration of assent is not a statutory instrument for the purposes of the Statutory Instruments Act. S.Nu. 2005,c.8,s.2(4).

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Definition of "department"

59. (1) In section 67, "department" means a department, secretariat, agency, board or corporation of the Government of Nunavut.

Interpretation

(2) Sections 60 to 70 shall not be construed to be exhaustive of the privileges, capacities, rights, functions, powers and duties of the executive government.

Executive Council

60. (1) The Executive Council of Nunavut is composed of the following members:

- (a) a Premier chosen from among the members of the Legislative Assembly and appointed by the Commissioner on the recommendation of the Legislative Assembly; and
- (b) persons appointed by the Commissioner on the recommendation of the Legislative Assembly.

Exception

(2) No person shall be appointed under paragraph (1)(b) unless he or she meets the requirements of subsection 10(3).

Tenure of office

(3) The members of the Executive Council chosen or appointed under subsection (1) hold office during the pleasure of the Legislative Assembly. S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.7.

Responsibilities of Executive Council

61. The Executive Council is responsible for the overall management and direction of the executive government of Nunavut, including matters of policy.

Oaths

62. Every member of the Executive Council shall, before assuming any duties of office, take the following oaths in the presence of the Commissioner:

- (a) an oath of allegiance in Form 1 of Schedule D, where the member has not taken that oath under section 12; and
- (b) an oath of office in Form 4 of Schedule D.

S.Nu. 2008,c.8,s.1(3).

Office of Premier vacant

63. (1) If the office of the Premier becomes vacant by resignation, death or for any other reason, the Legislative Assembly shall choose another from among its members to be Premier.

Continuance of Premier in office

(2) The person who holds the office of Premier at the time of expiration or dissolution of the Legislative Assembly continues to hold the office of Premier until the next Premier is chosen at the first session of the next Legislative Assembly.

Appointment of Deputy Premier

64. (1) The Commissioner, on the advice of the Premier, may appoint under the Seal, from among the members of the Executive Council, a Deputy Premier.

Tenure of office

(2) The Deputy Premier holds office during the pleasure of the Premier.

Duties of Deputy Premier

65. (1) Where the office of the Premier is vacant, the Deputy Premier may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties of the Premier until a new Premier is chosen by the Legislative Assembly.

Where Premier absent

(2) Where the Premier is absent, incapacitated, or unable to act, the Deputy Premier may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties of the Premier during the absence, incapacity, or inability to act of the Premier.

Acting Premier where both Premier and Deputy Premier absent

(3) Where both the Premier and Deputy Premier are or expect to be absent, incapacitated, or unable to act at the same time, the Premier or the Deputy Premier may designate a Minister to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Premier during the absence, incapacity, or inability to act of the Premier and Deputy Premier.

Validity of acts done

(4) All acts done under this section by the Deputy Premier or a designated Minister are as valid and have the same effect as if done by the Premier.

Appointment of Ministers

66. (1) The Commissioner, on the advice of the Premier, may appoint under the Seal, from among the members of the Executive Council, the Ministers of the executive government.

Tenure of office

(2) The Ministers appointed under subsection (1) hold office during the pleasure of the Premier.

Departments and title

67. (1) A Minister may be appointed to have authority over more than one department or to hold more than one title.

Responsibility of Minister

(2) A Minister has responsibility for all matters arising within a department over which the Minister has authority.

Agreements

- (3) Subject to any enactment, a Minister may enter into agreements for or on behalf of
- (a) a department over which the Minister has authority; or
 - (b) the Government of Nunavut.

Absence, incapacity or inability

68. (1) A Minister who is or expects to be temporarily absent, incapacitated or unable to act may request the Premier to designate another Minister to act in the Minister's stead.

Designation of acting Minister

(2) Where a Minister has requested the Premier to designate another Minister to act in the Minister's stead or where a Minister is unable to make such a request but is temporarily absent, incapacitated or unable to act, the Premier may designate another Minister to act during the temporary absence, incapacity or inability of that Minister.

Validity of acts done

(3) All acts done by a Minister designated under subsection (2) are as valid and have the same effect as if done by the Minister in whose stead that Minister is acting.

Continuation of appointment

69. A person, other than the Premier, who is a member of the Executive Council at the time of expiration or dissolution of the Legislative Assembly continues to be a member of the Executive Council, and to hold the office of Deputy Premier or Minister, until the beginning of the first day of the first session of the next Legislative Assembly, unless the person's appointment or appointments are revoked earlier.

Committees

70. The Executive Council may establish such committees of the Executive Council to aid and advise the executive government as it considers advisable.

70.01. Repealed, S.Nu. 2015,c.6,s.4.

70.1. Repealed, S.Nu. 2010,c.13,s.9.
