Do you want to learn something new? Join us at the weekly "Learn to..." summer program offered at the Sylvia Grinnell Territorial Park in Iqaluit!

Activities such as learning to light a qulliq, throat singing and many more are planned on the first Saturday of each month and every Tuesday, from 1:15 to 3 p.m., starting on June 1 until August 19, 2019. Attendance is free and no registration is required.

In case of bad weather, activities will be held at the Sylvia Grinnell Park Pavilion. For a complete schedule of events and locations, please go to https://gov.nu.ca/environment.

Nunavut Parks encourages healthy outdoor living and connecting people to nature.
