This 14-week program provides training in essential skills, computers, personal portfolio development and work readiness. A two-week, mentored work experience is included.

Individuals who participate in this program will:

- Learn more about employment opportunities in Nunavut.

If you are an income assistance client living in one of these communities and you want to apply for the program, you can talk to your local income assistance worker to learn more. Program participants who regularly attend will receive an attendance incentive.
